Author(s):

In order to publish your article in Journal of Rural Development and Agriculture, it is necessary that this form should be signed preferably by all the authors or by corresponding author to the Editor, JRDA.

By signing this agreement, the contributors (authors) warrant that:

1. The entire work is original and unpublished; it is submitted only to this Journal and all text, data, figures/tables or other illustrations included in this work are completely original and unpublished, and these have not been previously published or submitted elsewhere in any form or media whatsoever.
2. Each author(s) agree to transfer all copyrights of this work to JRDA.
3. Each author has significantly contributed in the submitted manuscript and approved the contents of the article.
4. If the submitted manuscript contains data or any kind of information that is of the intellectual property of any other party, then the corresponding author must warrant that the permission from the copyright owner has been granted to be published in JRDA. In any reverse case, the author/authors will be held responsible for such kind of violation.
